

Welcome to Jho-Low.com.

For the past several years, I have been subject to a series of allegations across the globe in relation to the operations of 1Malaysia Development Berhad ("1MDB"), a strategic investment and development company wholly-owned by the Government of Malaysia. Many of the allegations have originated from blog posts, improper leaks from within Governmental agencies around the world, or unproven allegations filed in court, where I have never been afforded an opportunity to set the record straight. In the absence of objective and balanced reporting, these unproven allegations have been improperly elevated to the status of facts; when the true position is that none of these allegations have ever been proven in a court of law.

This website is an effort to change that. My goal is to provide a balanced view of the allegations and the truth behind these matters.

After a multiyear, collaborative effort between my legal team and the United States Government, we have reached a landmark global, comprehensive settlement filed in court on 30 October 2019, which fully and finally, resolves in their entirety all of the forfeiture actions at issue. I am deeply appreciative of my lawyers and the trustees of the trusts, as well as the U.S. government for the constructive nature of these discussions, which enabled this positive resolution.

As I have maintained over the last several years, I am innocent. I will continue to fight the broad, sweeping, unproven, biased and politically motivated allegations against me, and I am confident that as facts come to light, the truth will be revealed. I only ask that everyone — courts, prosecutors, and the general public — keep an open mind until all of the facts are presented.

Sincerely,
